The still bickering men shove their way into the classroom as students shove their way out. Georgia sends a warning text to the group chat and makes her way to the classroom for her next lecture, eyes glued to her phone for any updates.

Diana doesn't even have to fake taking her time to pack up her things this time. The men barge straight in, sliding up to Graham and stealing his attention away by blocking him in behind the desk.

Flora F.

we should take Graham wrangling tips from them. They got him quick

“Graham, I’m sorry!”

“What,” Graham blinks.

“I didn’t know,”

The other man interrupts, “How did you not know?”

“Wait, what?”

Diana D.

They’re fumbling

Diana D.

Apologizing but badly

“Look, I thought he already knew, okay,”

“Who?”

“Crawford!”

Diana D.

Diana D.

Diana D.

Amelia D.
More than “kind of” I’d say

Hayden C.
Isn't Crawford the of the BSU (Rhetorical)? Shouldn’t he be better at this. It’s not like they’ve been quiet about it.

Levi T.
